Our Tramp Around the City

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

While streamer-FAIR; Blue-RAIN or SNOW With Black ABOVE-'twill WARMER grow. If Black's BENEATH-COLDER 'twill be: Unless Black's shown-no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'cloc

A FEMININE PARADOX. The waist of Evelina's gown

Is somewhat paradoxical; It cost a hundred dollars down, and yet it is illogical.

Although it has a perfect fit Upon her form ethereal. One's justified in calling it A waist of good material.

Personal Points

are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wheeler are visiting in Cincinnati. Miss Nettie Wright of Covington is visiting friends here.

Mrs. G. W. Welsh of Danville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Cochran.

Senator Garrett S. Wall spent Sunday with his family in this city.

O. Gray Stacy and Rollo Young o Ripley were in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Gerhold of Cincinnati is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larmon Dawson, of the Sixth Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hise and Mrs. James Hise of Cincinnati came up Saturday on a visit to relatives.

J. W. Helbling, Auditor, and E. A. Tissander, Treasurer of Brown county, O., were in the city Sunday.

C. S. Anderson and wife of Washington go to Peoria, Ill., June 1st, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Gus C. Lee. Raymond Patterson, Esq., of The Chicago Tribune is making a visit to Colonel T. A. Hogan of this city.

friends and relatives on Grant street.

Callie have returned home after a visit to spending a few days with his parents, and Danville, so he must get a handsome to their homes, feeling lighter and happier Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nicholson, returned salary. yesterday.

Cincinnati are spending a few days with will shortly be married to one of Lexing- Deming in full. Mrs. Lyons's parents, Mr. and Mrs. ton's well-known politicians, who is a George T. Wood.

Mrs. Isaac Boughner of Springville is visiting her brothers and sisters, the thorized a favorable report fixing the to the cemetery and with their wives and han of West Third street.

Mrs. W. H. Sarvis and daughters, Miss Alice and Miss Emma, of Wyoming, O., are the guests of Mrs. J. M. Redden and family of East Second street.

Mrs. Fleetwood of Chicago is the guest of Miss Margaret Finch.

Mrs. John Carnahan and daughter Katie are visiting her parents at Plain

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Grant of Covington are on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Goodman.

Mrs. Mary Ralston and Miss Rudy of MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCES. Newport are visiting friends in this city and at Aberdeen.

Clint Browning of Cincinnati came up Impressive Ceremonies in Maysville, at Saturday to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Browning.

MRS. ELIZABETH LYONS of Rose Hill is dead at the age of 92 years.

G. V. Mallory of Elkton had 17 head of cattle killed by lightning.

THE Kentucky Teachers' Association convenes June 28th at Paducah.

SMOKE G. W. Childs's new 5 cent cigar Special Delivery and Nancy Hanks.

Hop Lee, the Paris Chinaman, has been naturalized under the name of Soo Hoo

MRS. NANCY MURPHY, aged 93, a native of Harrison county, died in New-

J. W. REYNOLDS, aged 65, and Evelyn Rush, aged 17, were married in Daviess Persons wishing to join the Magazine Club will please call on W. D. Hixon at the Library.

PAUL C. EDWARDS, an Ashland commission merchant, has been closed up for a small debt.

their rounds to-morrow.

died at the residence of his brother, Hon.

G. C. Lockhart, in Paris.

RICHARD WITT, living near Covington, left his wife and skipped out with Cora to the love and admiration in which the Piatt, his pretty fifteen-year-old sister-in- memory of the dead is held. Surely one

It was a very good day for the Street Railway Company. Several times during the afternoon the cars were crowded to the doors.

THE great Barney & Smith Railway *4,500,000.

in Lexington in 1827, and residing in New Orleans since 1858, died in the latter city a few days ago. THE unsecured creditors of Hermann way of compromise. to take measures to have the Separate Coach bill declared unconstitutional.

A CONCERT will be given at Mitchell Chapel, Sixth Ward, to-night, commencnew M. E. Church. Admission 10 cents.

THE Knott county courthouse and jail were burned, in the hore of destroying the records. These were saved, how Mrs. Philip Klipp and little daughter ever. Loss, $7,000, with partial insur-

PRESIDENT MILTON H. SMITH of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, re W. L. Nicholson of Cincinnati after fused $35,000 a year from the Richmond

Ir is rumored in society circles that Mrs. M. J. Lyons and Miss Bland of the beautiful grass-widow, Mrs. Weiser, widower.

THE House Postoffice Committee au-Messrs. McClanahan and Miss McClana- salary of letter-carriers at $1,200 per annum during and after the fourth year decorated the graves of their departed remember their charge and battle cry as they rushed upon the enemy through blue for the defense of the Nation. You who enjoyed the May Music Festival at reception of articles for exposition panions in arms.

> THE judgment of the Robertson Circuit Court in the case of Buckler vs. Reese has been affirmed by the Superior Court. Winfield Buckler for appellant and L. W.

Wednesday morning.

ROSES AND WREATHS

Placed Upon the Graves of Dead Comrades.

Brooksville and at Augusta.

Memorial Day was perhaps more strictly and more reverently observed in In fact, in all the surrounding country, and respect, nay admiration of every wherever the old soldiers are laid to rest, their surviving comrades were gathered up to-day, and the Carriers will start on prayers and with patriotic words. Nor were the veterans alone in their devotion. the sons and wives and daughters of the who believed in and fought for other institutions than the now accepted ones.

vie with each other in bearing testimony done nothing all their lives but beg and elevated plain, its loftiest heights. worship of those who, in life, sacrificed cacy of that sort of sentiment, and the and the down-trodden of all the earth so much for us, and it is proper and befitting that each recurring 30th of May should hundred those individuals could not unbring a broader example of human der any circumstances be induced to had established for all time the grandest charity.

Joseph Heiser Post, G. A. R., had Carworks at Dayton, O., have been charge of the memorial services at this bought by a syndicate and capitalized at place, assisted by M. C. Hutchins Camp, S. of V. Detachments from Major Harris Post of Augusta and George B. DR. Tobias Gibson Richardson, born Bailey Post of Aberdeen and some comrades from Fleming county were also in attendance.

The column started from the G. A. R. Hall at 2 o'clock promptly. On arriving Lange at Cincinnati have been offered at the cemetery they proceeded imtwenty-five per cent. on their claims by mediately to the handsome monument erected a few years ago, where the impressive ceremony of the G. A. R. and A CONVENTION of negroes has been S. of V. was gone through with. A bevy called to meet in Lexington June 22d of little girls joined the procession at the cemetery who with their bright faces added materially to the attractiveness of It was American meeting American.

After the ceremony the people gathered ing at 8 o'clock for the benefit of the to the oration of Judge O. S. Deming of of the National soldier in meeting and Mt. Olivet.

Dr. A. A. Mannen of Augusta first read and then Judge Deming was introduced by Post Commander John Day.

The speech was full of interest, and the Judge was listened to with close attention by an appreciative assemblage. The address over, the distribution of the flowers began, after which all went to for having performed a sacred but pathetic duty.

At the earliest opportunity THE LED-GER will print the speech of Judge

McKinnevan Post, G. A. R., colored, observed the day with appropriate ceremonies. Quite a number of them marched children and friends handsomely full of people. Among the speakers was men as ever marshalled in the presence of a foe, and I am sure the Federal sol-with more than Spartan nerve and more them among hostile neighbors; bidding adieu, perhaps for the last time, the loved hardships and dangers of war. Yes, it was a grand test of love and devotion to the war have been almost obliterated. country; but they did go and many of them never returned, but are now sleeping the sleep of death on the battlefields same altars in worship, frequently vote of the South, or in the beautiful cemeteries into which a grateful Government has gathered their precious remains, and although the summers of nearly the third of the new generations that have apof a century have greened their graves. the memory of the brave boys who went out from this section way yonder in the from the capitols of Maine, Massachu-early sixties to take part in the bloody setts. Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana and drama of war is as fresh on the tablets of our hearts as if we had seen them but yesterday.

Time has been at work on those who survived the conflict. The ranks are thinning. Ah, time, "remorseless time! The fierce spirit of the glass and scythe; what power can stop his silent march, or bird, the condor of the Andes that soars crag; but time feels not the weight of sleep or weariness, and night in its darkest depths has no chain to bind his rushing pinions." Yes, they are going, and as the years roll away the scythe makes wider sweeps, and the victims of these remorseless swaths increase, and many of my old comrades have been field their sturdy bravery displayed the stuff of which they were made. They are a credit to Bracken county, and are Maysville vesterday than ever before, entitled to the honorable consideration world's goods, but their hearts throbbed their surviving comrades were gathered in heroic breasts. They are the most together to do homage to the déad,—to creditable thing of all the good things the of patriotism

I am sure the ex-Confederates honor and PROF. W. H. LOCKHART of Cynthiana living and of the dead aided with kind respect them, and if there are men in tants; mightest in the political and this county who do not, you can safely and religious freedom of her people. and loving hands. The graves of those this county who do not, you can safely point to such as those who have done nothing for society or mankind.

We find sometimes in Kentucky speci-ROBERT McCreary, son of ex-Governor McCreary, will be married soon to a young lady of New York.

Stitutions than the now accepted ones, were not forgotten. Nature's wreaths are not forgotten. Nature's wreaths were not forgotten. Nature's wreaths around inflated by their own importance, who cast side glances at the old Federal soldiers but who are not worthy to tie the
soldiers but who are not worthy to tie the people. Here all are free; manhood National day, when soldier and civilian string of the soldier's shoe; who have reaches seek some office at the hands of the people; whose stock in trade is posing as mentous questions; questions affecting friends of the South; who have curried far the whole human race. You thereby day in the year can be dedicated to the vor by their loud-mouthed and bitter advoface the perils of the struggle in the Confederate army.

I have some respect for the brave men who backed their convictions on the battlefield, or who joined the Confederate army and risked the chances of war, but mighty little for the bitter, relentless stay-at-homer who has rooted all the old Confederate soldiers out by his superior manipulation of county and other con-ventions. When Generals Lee and Johnston surrendered their armies the Confederate soldier as a rule quit, but the other chap never, and never will until God in his merciful providence wipes him from the face of the earth. From him the church and the home and the schoolhouse: Federal soldier asks no favors, and regards that class of individuals by the and with food enough, if necessary, to standard they have erected for their very small selves.

History tells and will hereafter tell the story of American valor in that war, for the armies of both sides were full of it. greater than the tug of war when Greek met Greek. The conduct of the Confederate soldier upon the battlefield of Frankin another part of the cemetery to listen | lin was superbly daring, and the conduct was sublimely heroic. A hundred gallant sons of old Bracken filled their places is but a part of the exhibit that a piece, descriptive of a battery in action, in the Federal line and in the exacting work of that mortal combat, almost hand to hand struggle in wresting the first line of works from the exultant foe, displayed a bravery as grand as was shown by the Greeks at Thermopylæ. And I saw their heroism upon many another hard fought field. I saw them charge down through the valley, up the divided into petty principalities. Tyrants, weltered in bloody wounds. They moved under my orders in their gallant onward march, as they skirmished through the North Carolina forest, fighting continually for miles the day we moved live in this wondrous ago.
out of the town of Smithfield. I Well do I remember, way yonder in out of the town of Smithfield. ones.

The services at Brooksville were on a somewhat elaborate scale.

Addresses were made by several distinguished comrades and the town was tinguished comrades and the town was ever marshalled in the presence of the Nation. You blue for the defense of the Nation. You were young then, just at the threshold of manhood. The flag of our fathers floated over you; the uniform that Washington had given the country garbed you. Your step was the tread of the athlete. With the presence was the presence of the Nation. You were young then, just at the threshold of manhood. The flag of our fathers floated over you; the uniform that Washington had given the country garbed you. Your step was the tread of the athlete. With Bracken county, many of them well. No circumstances, under such conditions, better soldiers could be found in the are deathless, and the commemoration of Union Army. They went mainly from this day is but the natural outcome of the comforts, pleasures and allurements such a condition. We have met to honor of country firesides, actuated by the most exalted patriotism. They braved all sorts of opposition, threats of violence, remains of those who have preceded us of the incendiarism of their homes, but to the tomb, and no day in our National calendar is of more value to the country. than Roman valor they left to serve four These ceremonies not only honor the years in the columns of the Union. It memories of our departed friends and was a trying time with them, the leaving comrades, but they rekindle the fires of of wives and children to the uncertain patriotism on the altars of liberty; they chances of life in their absence, to face are object lessons to our boys, and pre-life's burdens almost unaided, and to face pare in their hearts the seed that will blossom into armies of defense whenever enemies assail from without or within the mother, the aged father, the parting from liberties of the people or imperil the tender children, to undergo the trials. safety of the Republic.

But now peace reigns. The scars of for the same candidates, and have almost lost their identity in the great push and struggle of the crowds and in the midst peared on the stage of action. The same flag proudly floats over all: proudly floats setts, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana and

The corridors of the National Capitol resound with the footsteps of men now engaged in friendly converse who in other days sought each others' lives; and our National and state legislatures are occupied by men who faced each other in hostile array and bloody combat upon the melt his iron soul to pity. On, ever on fields of war. Those who were our ene-in his course forevermore. The proud mies are now many of them our friends. Those whose sullen looks of hate glowed through heaven's fathomiess depths, or in fierce vindictiveness upon us during braves the great Northern hurricane and the struggle, and for several years after the bathes his plumage in the thunder's home, at nightfall furls his mighty wings about him and sinks to rest on his mountain real friends, and to respect them, and the growth of the honor, respect and appreciation of all the people for the men, who, in the Providence of God, saved the American Union, is very apparent.
The Grand Army button has become a badge of merit and honorable distinction, and barring a few of those whose only stock in trade is an endeavor to keep alive the sores of the war for selfish purposes, caught in their deadly embrace.

But I have digressed from what I was the great mass of the American people. going to say. The men from Bracken even South of the line of thirty six thirty, were true men. Upon many a bloody either speak kindly of the old veteran. utter no word against him, and have come to look upon him with honorable rev-

The United States has come to be re garded by our late enemies as their monstation worthy of that beautiful and country, their Nation; the stars and historic city and her his hearted records stripes as their flag. My comrades, what wonders have you wrought? You saved The street letter boxes are being put pay their respects with flowers, with patriotic words. Nor being rounds to me dead,—to creditable thing of all the good things the county has ever produced, and the man or set of men who fail to honor and revenience among the sisterhood of Nathern rounds to me and the county has ever produced, and the man or set of men who fail to honor and revenience among the sisterhood of Nathern rounds to me and the county has ever produced, and the man or set of men who fail to honor and revenience among the sisterhood of Nathern rounds to me and the county has ever produced, and the man or set of men who fail to honor and revenience them are described thing of all the good things the county has ever produced, and the man or set of men who fail to honor and revenience among the sisterhood of Nathern Republic, and made it possible for the United States to reach prethem all;-mighest in the character, in-telligence and civilization of her inhabi-Here every man can worship God as his conscience dictates. Here no sect controls; no Protestant dare persecute a its fullest fruition, its most your success in that war you settled momentous questions; questions affecting struck a blow to tyranny and despotism keeping alive the animosities engendered took new hope, and raised their voices in by the war. Ninety nine times out of a exultant praise when victory perched upon the banners of the Union. For you asylum of freedom the world has even known-an asylum that sits queenly. splendidly between the ceaseless surges of two mighty oceans, continental in extent, a continuous domain under one government greater than the Cæsars ever ruled; of available habitable territory greater than any monarch of the world ever governed. Here woman is queen and man is king. With single States greater in area than famous empires', she is rich in all the elements that go to make comfort and happiness, and teeming with a population resistless in energy and marvelous in its ingenuity :- A land of the a land whose granaries burst with fullness supply mankind: where the husbandman tills in peace and garners without fear; where under the fostering care of a wise Government and the inspiration of freedom, her citizens are rapidly gathering the wealth of the world. They have harnessed the lightning and it does their bidding. Fields of waving grain, and towns and villages and great cities have sprung up in all directions, and her whole > and that of our heroic brothers who laid their lives upon the altars of our country how changed would be the picture!

The splendid vision upon which we now gaze would have been an impossibility. Our country would have been of August at Etawa creek, when half of Company "D" was killed or wounded, where poor Richard Shane I would be a multitudes pursuing the average of the company the die—Andrew Wiley. Billy Cummins, Alex Elred got their death, where the brave Jim Shane left a leg, and where Will Riley, Joseph Shawan and others where now comfort, happiness and wealth prevail. America can never repay you. my comrades, for the good you have accomplished, for the comfort, happiness, and glory you have bestowed upon those who are so fortunate to be permitted to from Kentucky this spring.

upright forms you went forth to save sideration of $1,368. He claimed that the Union. Ah, I now well remember the only $20 of the amount was paid, and imfamily of East Second street.

Robertson for appellee.

Captain and Mrs. Sam Gaines, G. W. Blatterman, Miss Kate Blatterman, Miss Finch and Miss Fleetwood were among the people from Maysville who enjoyed the May Music Festival at Cincinnati Saturday.

Full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The young lady art students will arrange the Studio and display of paintings at the Centennial exposition in this city. The library will be ready for the who enjoyed the May Music Festival at Cincinnati Saturday.

Full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of this city, who said:

The full of people. Among the speakers was Hon. M. C. Hutchins of the work they upon those of you who survived the carriage the martial tread of the work they upon those of soil of form has been bent, the elastic step replaced by the movement of advancing years, and I tell you, comrades, the spec-tacle saddens, for it admonishes me that the Grand Army is still in motion, moving on, inexorably in one undeviating direction to, where-

"On Fame's eternal camping ground their silent tents are spread, And glory guards with solemn round the bivouse of the dead."

Yes; our tents will soon be set therein, not long until that mighty army which under the matchless leadership of Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Thomas, Ruger, Cox, Stanley, Hancock and other splendid Stanley, Hancock and other spiendid commanders will have settled in the last camp. But our leaders, what men they were; Europe has had her Alexander, her Cæsar, Scipio, Charles the Twelfth, Napoleon, Wellington, Von Moltke; to each has been assigned his proper place in the Pantheon of fame, but the fame of these casts no shadow over the halo of imperishable renown that surrounds and will through all the ages surround the name and fame of the hero of Appomattox, Ulysses S. Grant, and the other generals who wrested victory from defeat, who turned disaster into triumph, who in spite of a brave and determined enemy, fighting with the energy of an unpar-allelled desperation and commanded by accomplished generals ever upon the alert, and upon what they considered their own soil, led the armies of the Nation to permanent and glorious victory.

My friends, may those of you who surround me to day live to reassemble upon many coming Decoration Days. Your presence at such scenes is a credit to your manhood. Notwithstanding the sadness and pathos it exhibits, it demonstrates still that the noble sentiments that actuated you in the long ago still glow in your bosoms. That you still love the emblem of our country's greatness and glory which the fathers of the Revolution won; before which the pride of proud England has been humbled in two wars; which has waved in triumph over the halls of the Montezumas; which in the greatest civil war in the world's history never went down in disgrace, but through it sil has come forth waving in greater grandeur, with every star glittering in its place, upheld by you and your dead comrades on whose graves all over this great land tender, lovely women and brave men are placing decorations in flowers, emblematic of the honor and esteem in which their memories

At Augusta the ceremonies began at 71 o'clock, in order that the members of Major Harris Post with their ladies might leave for Maysville on the 9 o'clock train.

After the ritualistic ceremonies at the cemetery the graves were decorated, and Thomas A. Davis of this city delivered an address.

The attendance was quite large considering the early hour; but next year the Augustans propose uniting the Posts of the surrounding places and having a dehistoric city and her big-hearted people.

W. G. LODWICK has been appointed City Passenger Agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Rallway at Cincinnati.

JAMES RICE was instantly killed near Grayson by a tree falling on him. He leaves a wife and four small children.

H. Smith, President of the L. and N. Railroad, of a complimentary over the "GLADDY" PEARCE, once the Adonis

WE acknowledge the receipt, from M of Cincinnati gamblers, has yielded to disease, and is now in the Sanitarium, a raving maniac. HENRY WATTERSON will deliver a historical address at the presentation of the Philadelphia paintings to Kentucky at Lexington to-morrow. ADOLPH VOOT suicided at Cincinnati, and his funeral expenses were paid by Miss Annie Vogt, his neice. She says

$16,000 is due him from Germany, and will have herself appointed administra-THE will of Mrs. Eliza L. Flagg. daughter of the late Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, was admitted to record in Adams county, O. She owned nearly six thousand acres of real estate in Adams and Scioto counties. She devises all of her title in said lands to her husband.

William J. Flagg. Special advices from regions affected more seriously by floods point to an aggregate loss in five states of $32,000,000, which includes damage to railway property, destruction of levees, farm buildings, machinery, live stock and crops, as well as loss on other property. Louisiana and Arkansas have lost less in this respect than has been reported, and Illinois and Missouri probably more. Ah, my comrades, without your work Losses in Iowa and Kansas have been greatly exaggerated.

> TWENTY ONE head of thoroughbred yearlings, the property of Frank B. Harper of Nantura Stud, Lexington, will be sold in New York this week by William Easton. Among them is a full brother to the great Freeland, a sister to the mighty Longstreet and a brother to Edward Corrigan's Lew Weir. There are ceiver and Falsetto. This is one of the most valuable shipments of yearlings sent

A CASE which would be a good compan-